

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you cannot vote in person, you can have someone you trust vote on your behalf. You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if you are registered to vote, or have applied to be registered, as a member of the armed forces or a spouse or civil partner of someone who is.

This form applies only in England.

To vote by proxy, both you and your proxy must be registered and eligible to vote.

A proxy can vote for a maximum of 4 people. No more than 2 of those people can be domestic electors. Domestic electors are voters who are neither overseas voters nor service voters.

For more information on proxy voting and other ways to apply, visit electoralcommission.co.uk/proxyvote.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- Ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form.
- Make sure all required sections of the form are complete and provide your date of birth and signature. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your local electoral registration office.
- If your application has missing or incorrect information, your local electoral registration office will contact you. You may need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details and more information at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission.

When applying for a new proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll.

When changing or cancelling an existing postal, proxy or postal proxy vote, you must return your application form by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll.

If you are not already registered to vote, you must apply to register before applying for a proxy vote. The deadline to register to vote is midnight, 12 working days before the poll. Register to vote online at gov.uk/register-to-vote. For more information, speak to your Unit Registration Officer or contact your local electoral registration office.

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your local electoral registration office will confirm if your application has been accepted or rejected.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You must let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote on your behalf by post. They can apply to do this until 5pm, 11 working days before the poll. They can contact your local electoral registration office for more details and to request a postal vote application form. For contact details, go to electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.
- If you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote on your behalf by post.
